THE DR. J. H. McLEAN MEDICINE CO.
St. Louis, Mo.

Miller Reese Hutchinson, a young Alabamian, has recently won fame because of his efforts in behalf of the deaf. The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune says that by means of his invention, Mr. Hutchinson enabled three children who were deaf, dumb and blind to hear a pianist play Sousa's marches. A phonograph repeated the sounds and the sounds of their own voices uttering the words "mamma," "papa" and "hello," in quivering childish treble. The experiments were made at the laboratory of Mr. Hutchinson and were witnessed by many persons. The invention consists, primarily, of a transmitter, an ear piece, and a small electric battery. By means of these instruments sound is projected into the ear in a manner to stimulate the auditory nerve. The volume of sound has nothing to do with the action of these instruments. The penetrating quality of the electric sound wave apparently disregards the mechanism of the outer ear and affects the inner ear direct. The first patient brought out to try the effects of the invention was Orris Benson, who is blind, deaf and dumb. A physician tried to make him hear in various ways, but all his efforts were in vain. The little instrument was then clapped to the lad's ear, the current switched on, and Mr. Hutchinson said in an ordinary conversational tone, "papa." The youth worked his fingers rapidly in the sign language. The current was made stronger. The youth's eyeballs were raised and he smiled. Then he tried to repeat the syllables and in a weird treble cried shrilly, "papa."

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours, says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This remedy is for sale by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today?
